

HOTELS

LONDON HOTELS

Matching Exercise: Read the hotel advertisements and fill in the chart choosing for every person or a number of persons the most appropriate hotel. Prove your choice.

[1]

Bloomsbury--Cheap Lodging for Students--The International Students House, 229 Great Portland St., W1W 5PN (tel. 020/7631-8300; www.ish.org.uk), offers blandly furnished, institutional rooms for £33 ($63) single, £25 to £27 ($48-$51) per person double, £20 ($38) per person triple, and £18 ($34) per person in a four-person mixed room. A £10 ($19) key deposit is charged. Laundry facilities are available. Facilities include laundry machines, a bar, an Internet cafe, a fitness center, and sun beds. Reserve way in advance because these rooms go very quickly.

[2]

117/125 Cromwell Road, South Kensington. In a superb South Kensington location, just a short walk to Knightsbridge, comfort awaits in our tastefully appointed limited service hotel with full 4 star amenities. We have a restaurant and bar/tavern for your convenience. All rooms have full en-suite private bathroom, individually controlled air conditioning and heating, refrigerator, clock-radio, lap top sized safe, modem jack, trouser press, hair dryer, tea/coffee, satellite TV with remote (CNN, CNBC, MTV, Euro sport, Sports Extra, Discovery, Cartoon Channel and Movies), and FREE CONTINENTAL BUFFET BREAKFAST. Two Double beds, KING size beds, singles, doubles and triples are all available. The David Lloyd's Health Club, which is the London Premier 6 story Health Club facility, is adjacent to the hotel and is available to hotel guests at a special reduced rate. Superior rooms have ADSL inside each room upon advance request. Credit cards accepted: Visa, MasterCard, JCB, Diners Club, and American Express Smoking Policy: Smoking is permitted in the hotel. Non-smoking rooms are available.

[3]

For the up market traveler, the aptly named Uptown Reservations, 8 Kelso Place, London W8 5QD (tel. 020/7351-3445; fax 020/7937-6660; www.uptownres.co.uk/leisure.htm), features attractive, comfortably furnished accommodations in elegant private homes in such swanky districts of the city as Chelsea, Knightsbridge, Belgravia, and Kensington, with its association with the royal family. Options range from a 1708 Chelsea town house to a terraced "Arts and Crafts" home built in 1914. A substantial breakfast is included in the price, and you share your digs with the hosts themselves, many of whom are artists, diplomats, business people, or, in some rare cases, lords of the realm who need extra money for living expenses. Prices begin at £100 ($190) per night in a double or twin.

(A) A family is in search for a limited service hotel in Kensington
(B) Four persons are in search for the four-person mixed room with the laundry facilities available.
(C) A person is in search for the accommodation in an elegant private house in Kensington.
(D) A person looks for the hotel room with satellite TV with Euro Sport channel and where smoking is permitted.
(E) A group of foreign students is in search for a hotel or students' hostel where they can spend the night at the cheapest price.

KEYS:

(A) A family is in search for a limited service hotel in Kensington	2
(B) Four persons are in search for the four-person mixed room with the laundry facilities available.	1
(C) A person is in search for the accommodation in an elegant private house in Kensington.	3
(D) A person looks for the hotel room with satellite TV with Euro Sport channel and where smoking is permitted.	2
(E) A group of foreign students is in search for a hotel or students' hostel where they can spend the night at the cheapest price.	1